

LIVE-IN AIDE FORM
Rights and Responsibilities

Live-in aide is defined as one who resides with one or more elderly persons, or near-elderly persons, or persons with disability and who:

1. Is determined to be essential to the care and well-being of the persons
2. Is not obligated for the support of the persons and
3. Would not be living in the unit except to provide the necessary supportive services

A live-in aide is a member of the household, not the family, which means:

- Their income (if any) is not included when calculating family income.
- An aide has no rights as a participant in the MBHP Rental Assistance Program

The head of household must immediately notify MBHP of any changes in the status of a live-in aide.

MBHP approval of a live-in aide is required at each annual reexamination.

I certify that I qualify as a live-in aide as defined above.
