Hosted by Massachusetts Port Authority

Applications are being accepted for the 2022 Lowell L. Richards, III Fellowship. The deadline for completed applications is February 14, 2022 at 5:00pm.

The Lowell L. Richards, III Fellowship for Leadership and Public Service honors Lowell L. Richards, a longtime member and Co-chair of Metro Housing's Board of Directors, and recognizes his 29 year dedication to the organization's mission and his legacy of leadership and public service.

Fellowship experiences aim to encourage high performing graduate students to consider careers in public service. Lowell Richards personified the impact one individual can make to transform the footprint of a region, the outlook of a city, and the future for millions of individuals and families over generations.

Qualities like leadership, integrity, commitment, and ambition are desirable as well as aptitude for the urban planning field, and interest in public service. Applicants are judged according to the candidate's qualifications and how his/her skills, schedule and goals fit with the fellowship.

The fellowship is administered by Metro Housing|Boston. Metro Housing is a leading nonprofit organization that addresses and prevents homelessness in Greater Boston by providing supports and services for families and individuals and helps them move along the pathway from homelessness to housing stability to economic security.

Massachusetts Port Authority (Massport) hosts the fellowship in the Economic Planning and Development Department which Richards led for 13 years as Massport's Chief Development Officer. The fellow will work remotely on a project which will focus on urban planning and development.

Massport owns and operates three airports throughout Massachusetts and maritime facilities within the Port of Boston. It is a self-financing authority and depends on generating revenues from a variety of sources, most notably Logan International Airport (Logan), to fund operating and capital expenditures.

Fellowship Work Environment

The fellow will work on a project to be determined with Massport as the host site, and specific deliverables may be influenced by candidates' specific skills and interests.

- Work is generally performed in a hybrid office setting, Monday-Friday, between 8:30am-6:00pm.
- Commitment takes place during the summer with the schedule being negotiable between May and September.
- The environment is considered professional.

Fellowship Compensation

This is a paid fellowship of $7,500 paid two times per month. Metro Housing will work with the fellow and educational institution to arrange for class credit and additional when desired and if appropriate.
