Metro Housing Welcomes Three New Board Members

Metro Housing recently welcomed the following members to our Board of Directors.

Josef Rettman is the president of NEI General Contracting. As President, Josef Rettman strategically balances leading his team of 160 employees with commanding knowledge and tireless attention to detail on every project. Josef's involvement and support of many local charities and organizations speak to his goal of not only providing a useful and revitalized building, but a restored community presence as well. He serves on the board for several nonprofits.

Jason Korb is the principal of Capstone Communities LLC where he has developed market rate, mixed income, and 100% affordable housing. Since founding Capstone in October 2010, Jason has successfully completed a total of $100,000,000 of development transactions in Cambridge, Somerville, Arlington, Newton, Brockton, and Bridgewater. Prior to forming Capstone, Jason was the Vice President of Acquisitions at Beacon Communities LLC, a developer, owner, and manager of over 9,000 apartment homes in the Northeast.

Whitney Demetrius is the Director of Fair Housing and Municipal Engagement at Citizens' Housing and Planning Association (CHAPA). She directs CHAPA's Fair Housing Committee, ensuring fair housing principles are instilled throughout their programming, and works strategically to eliminate housing discrimination through changes in state and federal policy. Whitney was previously Deputy Director of the Fair Housing Center of Greater Boston.
